

John Jademar Lopez

Toronto, Ontario

(437) 123-4567

JohnJademar.Lopez@georgebrown.ca

Objective:

Computer Programmer and Analyst student with knowledge of software design, development, testing, and analysis. Seeking to pursue an opportunity to be a Junior level Software Developer.

Highlight of Qualifications:

- Excellent programming skills in Java and other programming language
- Expertness to work independent or with wide variety of teams
- Clear understanding of the principles of programming

Technical Skills:

Web Development: ReactJS, JavaScript, PHP, CSS

Object-oriented language: C#, Java, Python

Database: SQL

Education:

Computer Programmer Analyst, Diploma

September 2018 – April 2022

George Brown College, Toronto, Ontario

School Projects:

- E commerce site
 - Developed website for an online store for selling/buying products. The backend is made using PHP and the database used was MySQL.
- Event manager
 - Developed an event manager where users can book events using the application. The GUI is made using Windows Form and the backend is made using C#. This application utilizes object-oriented programming concept.
- Expense Tracker
 - Developed an expense tracker where users can enter and monitor their expenses per category and the application can track the expenses per week or month. This application and its GUI is made using python and made with object-oriented approach.

Certificates:

- Scrum Master Certified (SMC®)